

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
4/03/14

Media Contact:

Peter Fazekas
Public Relations Manager
Aquarion Water Company
Phone: (203) 336-7651

Aquarion Water Company Offers Free Fishing Permits for the Unemployed, Active Military, and Veterans

BRIDGEPORT, CONN. – April 3, 2014 – For the sixth year in a row, Aquarion Water Company will issue free fishing permits to any unemployed person over the age of 18. Veterans and active duty service members are also included in this year’s program.

On Tuesday, April 8th and Thursday, April 10th, anglers can obtain a free fishing permit by going to Aquarion’s Aspetuck Environmental Center at 714 Black Rock Road in Easton. Anglers should bring a valid Connecticut fishing license and official proof of unemployment or a military ID/DD Form 214. Once issued, fishing is open along designated shorelines of Aquarion’s Saugatuck Reservoir in Weston, the Far Mill Reservoir in Shelton, and the West Pequonnock Reservoir in Monroe.

Aquarion will be issuing the permits from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on both April 8th and 10th. For more information about the company’s fishing program please visit www.aquarionwater.com/fishing.

About Aquarion Water Company:

Aquarion Water Company is the public water supply company for more than 625,000 people in 47 cities and towns throughout Connecticut, as well as serving customers in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. It is the largest investor-owned water utility in New England and among the seven largest in the U.S. Based in Bridgeport, Conn., it has been in the public water supply business since 1857. Across its operations, Aquarion strives to act as a responsible steward of the environment and to assist the communities it serves in promoting sustainable practices.

For more information on Aquarion Water Company and its subsidiaries, please visit www.aquarionwater.com or www.facebook.com/aquarionwater.

###